

Dhevatarara Cove & Dhevatarara Residence

Quality. Security. Peace of mind. This is what you want in a home. Place yourself in one of Dhevatarara Properties' two residences in Koh Samui - Dhevatarara Cove (Lipa Noi) and Dhevatarara Residence (Bophut) - and you'll discover it is possible to make a sound investment in the midst of tropical island splendour.

These high-end, spacious and luxurious beachfront villas are the product of a creative team of internationally recognised architects, interior designers and consultants. Both properties have been under construction since October 2005 and will be ready for residents in November 2006.

Dhevatarara Cove, an exclusive beachfront gated community of six residences on Koh Samui's tranquil west coast, embodies luxury in a contemporary setting. Here, Thai-inspired architecture is in harmony with its surroundings, while interior/exterior design concepts promise to fulfil the highest expectations of those with a passion for stylish living. Substantial 1,800 sq.-m plots feature 740 to 1,100 sq.-m of living space, 25 m of absolute beach front and five or six ensuite bedrooms.

Up in exciting, trendy Bophut on the island's northern coast is Dhevatarara Residence: eight properties (five on the beach, three set into a hill) designed in a superb contemporary interpretation of classic Thai style that blends modern luxury with traditional tropical ease. Individual properties come single/two-storey (for beachfront villas), or two/three-storey (for hillside villas). Properties range in size, between 570 to 1,120 sq.-m, with 400 to 500 sq.-m of living space and direct access or absolute beach frontage and uninterrupted sea views. All properties have four en-suite bedrooms.

Residents of both Dhevatarara Cove and Dhevatarara Residence will experience luxurious privacy with features like a 12m x 5m infinity saltwater pool with chlorine generator and an outside Jacuzzi and sala. Living quarters are well appointed, with energy saving air-conditioning; fitted luxury kitchens, bathrooms and wardrobes; staff quarters (up to four staff); and advanced communication systems (three telephone lines, satellite TV and ADSL for Internet access). In both residences, privacy and security are of the utmost importance, making this an investment for peace of mind.

Professional estate managers Samui Villas & Homes (www.samuivillasandhomes.com) provides a range of services for residents of both Dhevatarara properties, including daily rubbish collection, stand-by technicians, beach cleaning and discrete nighttime beach front patrols and provisional staff for cleaning or entertaining. 🍷
