

Want stunning silk hand-woven to order?

Try Almeta's 'Silk a la Carte'

Almeta Silks' fabulous hand-woven silk is truly unique. Proud creator of 'Silk a la Carte', Almeta Silks lets you choose from over 1,000 different divine colours, four different high-quality yarn types; and then decide the weight – Almeta produces anything from 1 up to 12 ply... this gives you unending unique combinations, all woven to order and with no minimum amount required.

Beyond that, Almeta Silks can make any of your chosen silks machine-washable... or hand-pleated. There's even a curtain/cushion/furniture make-up service – plus, monogramming is available.

Fill your beds and sofas with luxuriously soft and comfortable silk cushions and bedding from Almeta. Cushions, pillows, duvet covers, bed covers, table runners and throws are all made from Almeta silks, hand-woven in Almeta's own workshop near Korat, many with beautiful embroideries.

In Bangkok's Sukhumvit Soi 23, right opposite the Tai Pan Hotel... look for the pink signs for the super-fabulous Almeta Silks, open every day 10 am - 6 pm.
